

Marco Fiorentino

He graduated in Business and Economics at the University of Naples. He is President and Advisor in many different societies (even listed companies). He is external expert for the Tribunal and he is nowadays member of several professional associations. He is the issuer's main Auditor.