

Gregorio Antonio Greco

Graduated in Business and Economics at the University of Bologna, he has been in the Accountants' Experts' registers for 17 years today. He is furthermore an official legal auditor. He has officially covered roles as tributary and taxation advisor. This has happened mainly for enterprises, which counted private participations and contributions. He covers sometimes the role of mediator for firms, which are being restricted being the one who negotiates crisis settlements. Starting from May 2020, he has been the alternate Auditor for the issuer.